WHY ICS

A Different Kind of Graduate School

Where Faith, Wisdom, and Educational Practice Intersect

ICS courses invite Christian educators out of the daily rush and into a community that thinks deeply about practice and why it matters.

Biblically Rooted

Grounded in the Reformational tradition, centred on the love embodied by Christ.

Designed for Working Educators

Part-time and fully online.
One course per term.

Community of Practice

Reflective Christian educators who share your questions and sharpen your thinking.

Accessible & Affordable

$1,500 CAD per course, with a $500 CAD bursary each semester (as available).

TIME · MONEY · FIT

Built Around Your School Year

Courses follow the rhythms of a teaching year, so you can pursue graduate study without stepping away from the classroom.

DELIVERY	Fully online. No Toronto visits required.
FORMAT	Part-time only · one course per term
CLASS TIME	Asynchronous study + six live Zoom sessions per course
COHORT SIZE	Up to 12 students
JULY	Summer courses pause so you can enjoy your break
PER COURSE	$1,500 CAD
BURSARY	$500 CAD per semester (as available)

"Nothing I did at ICS felt like a make-work project. I'm astounded by how the ICS professors make online classes feel like a community — I miss classes."

Kevin Otter — Teacher since 2009, Northumberland Christian School
MA-EL alum

MASTER OF WORLDVIEW STUDIES IN EDUCATION

MWS-E

Develop Your Practice, Enhance Your Career

For teachers, department heads, and administrators who want to think more deeply about their practice while teaching full-time.

LENGTH	~2.5 years part-time
COURSEWORK	6–7 courses
CAPSTONE	Action Project + theoretical paper, or major research paper
NET COST	$7,000–$8,500 CAD
STARTS	Fall · Winter · Summer

Net cost assumes the $500 semester bursary, as available. Timelines assume a steady pace; you can take longer.

- An Action Project in your own school — apply your learning where you already teach, alongside a theoretical paper.
- Two ways to finish — the Action Project, or a seventh course and a major research paper.
- Begin when your year allows — entry points in Fall, Winter, and Summer.
